

Don't citizens have the right to spend quality time at home without being interrupted by someone trying to sell you something you don't want. If I wanted it, I'd have it or find a way to get it - Don't bother me when I'm at home trying to enjoy my time with family and friends. Please don't overturn NJ's do not call law!